

Biographical Sketch

Rebecca Krelko
Program Director

Rebecca Krelko joined Advocates for Ohio's Future in July 2015. Prior to her role as the first Outreach and Field Operations Director, Rebecca worked to increase supporter engagement and educate statewide supporters on how to advocate for strong human services programs in Ohio her Master of Social Work field placement. Her responsibilities now include expanding the coalition's reach and ability to impact state policy decisions by educating member organizations and supporters in public policy advocacy through webinars, training sessions, presentations, and social media.

Rebecca earned her Bachelor of Arts in Psychology and Women's and Gender Studies from Ohio University in 2013 and her Master of Social Work (MSW) from The Ohio State University in 2015. She is also a Licensed Social Worker (LSW) for the State of Ohio.